

FIRST THINGS FIRST

2010 SERVICES FUNDED FOR CHILDREN REGIONAL PROGRAMS

WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE TRIBE REGIONAL PARTNERSHIP COUNCIL

Strategy Name	Description	Regional Allocation	Awards Made	Service Numbers
Family Support – Community-based Training	1. Collaborate with family support and education programs to expand services to include the development, enhancement or implementation of home visiting programs AND/OR 2. Expand existing services of federal, state and community agencies to provide resources, seminars and hands-on training to improve knowledge and understanding of basic parenting/ care giving skills	$159,000	1. Johns Hopkins Center for American Indian Health ($84,605) 2. Northland Pioneer College ($74,395)	1. Johns Hopkins Center for American Indian Health Service Numbers = 50 2. Northland Pioneer College Service Numbers = 40
Increasing Public Awareness about Early Childhood Health and Development	1. Annual Early Childhood and Health Conference, which would include presentations, booths, exhibits by all members of the Family Support Consortium 2. Sponsor a booth at the Annual Fair and Rodeo regarding early childhood health and development in the region along with FTF information and resources 3. Submit public service announcements and articles to the local radio station and newspaper to promote FTF and early childhood initiatives	$7,000 - $8,500	1. White Mountain Apache Tribe Child Find Program ($6,000) 2. Alchesay High School: Family, Career and Community Leaders of America Club ($2,000)	1. White Mountain Apache Tribe Child Find program Service Numbers = 200 professionals and paraprofessionals 2. Alchesay High School: Family, Career and Community Leaders of America Service Numbers = 100 parents
Family Support Consortium	All grantees of the White Mountain Apache Tribe Regional Partnership Council will be required to participate in monthly Family Support Consortium meetings to share ideas as well as collaborate on new projects/programs	No funding required	N/A	N/A

Strategy Name	Description	Regional Allocation	Awards Made	Service Numbers
U.S. Census	Collaborate with federal, state, tribal and community agencies to promote increased participation in the U.S. Census, which could include educational materials regarding census participation, hiring local community members to go door to door to help community members complete the census, and other strategies as outlined by the grantee.	$10,000	White Mountain Apache Tribe Planning Department	Service Numbers = Increasing U.S. Census participation by 5%
First Things First Emergency Response Plan	Provide a “support box” to families furloughed by the White Mountain Apache Tribe in order to help offset the cost of supplies/food for young children (Items differ from those typically found in a food box in that they target the specific needs of young children) The grantee will need to collaborate with tribal, federal and state agencies to ensure support boxes are reaching the target population.	$155,532	Johns Hopkins Center for American Indian Health	Estimated Service Numbers = between 500 and 800
First Things First Emergency Response Plan	Emergency Child Care Scholarships	$106,429	FTF Statewide Initiative	Service Numbers for September = 25 children